

Juan Bautista CHAPA. Hacienda de San Diego, "which belongs to General Diego de AYALA." December 24, 1682. (see also: cedula 725, p. 72 of this volume.)

Summary of Juan Nunez de CARVAJAL's Petition for Lands.
Israel CAVAZOS GARZA, Cedulaario Autobiografico de Pobladores y Conquistadores de Nuevo Leon, Monterrey, Mexico, 1964, Biblioteca de Nuevo Leon, 2., pp. 164-165.

281). NUNEZ DE CARVAJAL, Juan (Cerralvo, Aug. 23, 1683)
.....resident of the City of Monterrey....., state that it has been about two years since I came to this Kingdom with the intentions of settling in it and serving His Majesty, as in effect I did by marrying a legitimate granddaughter of Captain Jose de TREVINO, one of the first settlers and conquerors of this kingdom, who, at the time he came to settle brought a great number of cattle, sheep and horses, many firearms and other equipment of war, a squad of carts, slaves and many other things....; and who in the year of (sixteen hundred and) twelve, discovered the Rio Panuco and entered the Province of La Huasteca with much risk to his person on account of the many Indian tribes....And in such services, Capt. Jose de AYALA, his son and father of the said, my wife, continued, and likewise, I have done so in everything which has presented itself....And in order that I may continue, I want to bring into this kingdom cattle which I have acquired.....

Summary of Will and Testament of Leonor de la GARZA.
Israel Cavazos GARZA, Catalogo y Sintesis de los Protocolos del Archivo Municipal de Monterrey, 1599-1700, (Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, 1966, Publicaciones del Instituto Tecnologico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey, Serie: Historia 4), p. 120.

Cedula 389). fol. 64, no. 26: Will and testament of Leonor de la GARZA, widow of Capt. Nicolas de la SERNA, who was a resident of this city, wishes to be buried in the Parochial (Church). Children: Nicolas, Francisco and Jose. The first one is the only one living. There is Jose's widow, Maria BOTELLO, who has a child named Jose Antonio. (The testator) stated that she owes Captain Felix MILLAN, resident of the City of Mexico, 400 pesos. Property: the house composed of one living room, one upstairs and one downstairs room, and a kitchen. This she wills to Jose Antonio, her grandson. She, in addition, has 300 pesos and the rent of 500 goats, which Sgt. Major Blas de la GARZA, her brother, still owes her. Three slaves: Clara, Mulatta, 24 yrs. of age, and Maria and Antonia, her daughters, who value should serve to pay MILLAN's debt. Desk, bed made of granadillo, 6 large paintings and one rug "which cost 200 pesos." Testamentary executor: Jose. Before Capt. Martin de MENDIONDO, Alcalde ordinario. Witnesses: Diego GUTIERREZ, Manuel de MENDOZA and Francisco Baez de TREVINO. Attesting witnesses: Pedro de ALMANDOS and Capt. Antonio VALLEJO. Monterrey, October 15, 1687.

Summary of Will and Testament of Nicolas QUINTANILLA. (same as above.) pp. 101-102.

Cedula 348). IV, fol. 110 v., no. 48: Will and Testament of Nicolas QUINTANILLA, resident and native of this city, legitimate son of Bartolome GONZALEZ and Ana de QUINTANILLA, both deceased. It is his will to be buried, with novenary, at the parish where the body of his mother was buried. He stated to be married to Beatriz HERNANDEZ, legitimate daughter of Capt. Gregorio FERNANDEZ and of Beatriz GONZALEZ, both deceased. Children: Nicolas, Ana, Gregorio, Miguel and Juan. Property: His wife did not receive dowry and he had one piece of cultivated land in Santa Catalina. Debts: to Attorney at Law Francisco de la CALANCHA, Priest and